Miami Valley NARI's Speakers Bureau

Is your organization looking for a presentation on the Key Components to a Successful Remodeling Experience? Miami Valley NARI's Outreach Committee has developed a program designed specifically to provide information to the consuming public on how to hire a professional in the remodeling industry and avoid the common pitfalls of remodeling.

Audiences will learn about:

- Proper Planning
- Interviewing a Remodeling Professional
- A Well Written Contract
- Avoiding Common Misconceptions

There is no charge for this service and the program is flexible to fit your organization's presentation needs. The program can fit into a 20-45 minute format with a question and answer period.

Miami Valley NARI provides two speakers, audio-visual equipment (except for screen), and handouts.
